GLAD TIDINGS

February 2020

A Note from Pastor Erik…

I realize that this is only my second Midwestern winter, but I'm beginning to feel like I know a little something special about the post-Christmas wintertime. The days are shorter, and the world seems to move a little slower. People seem less absorbed in the hustle and bustle and they take a little more time to connect and say hello.

Ironically, there's a warmth in the winter and it is a warmth brought on by human connection – and interest. I notice this when I stop and talk with someone at the store or getting a cup of coffee. Or when taking a wintry walk and pausing to pet a dog and laugh with the owner.

There's also a sense of comradery, or a shared experience. When the temperature dips down into the single digits (or below!) we're pretty much all cold … and we exchange knowing glances, even with strangers, sharing the experience of the biting cold.

Connections and shared experiences are part of what make us human – it is part of our human need. In the church, we are all about journeying with one another. In fact, to be a Christian really involves being with other Christians. We walk with others on the journey and this helps us to own our faith and maybe even have our faith become relevant in our lives and our relationships.

As PCWS is a place of warmth and connection, and a place where we share common experiences with one another, I pray that you will continue to seek out others! Meanwhile, I'm going to keep looking for the secret blessings of the cold winter!

Warmly,

Pastor Erik

Introducing our New Church Administrator - Terri Angarone

We are pleased to welcome Terri Angarone to our PCWS team as Church Administrator. Terri's first day was January 27th. Terri comes to PCWS with extensive experience providing administrative and operational support to various organizations. She is a graduate of Dominican University in River Forest.

Terri, her husband, Pete, and two girls, Olivia (9) and Ophelia (4) live in Brookfield. In her free time, Terri enjoys working on her artwork (painting, block printing and etching) and spending time with family and friends.

Please stop by the Church Office and give a warm PCWS welcome to Terri!

Annual Meeting of the Congregation —February 9

Please plan on staying after worship on February 9th for the Annual Meeting of the Congregation. We will receive the written reports of our various programs and ministries and hear an update on our finances.

We will also express gratitude to those who have served the congregation in the prior year and recognize our 50-year members.

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

Valentine–Grams
Delivered Sunday, February 9

Valentine's Day is right around the corner! This year, your personal note will be delivered with a small teddy bear and a chocolate rose. Youth will be selling Grams through Sunday, February 2. You can also stop by the PCWS office to purchase Grams. We will stop taking orders for Grams on February 4. Grams will be delivered on February 9.

Interfaith Book Group
Wednesday, February 19, 1:30 p.m.

Meeting in the Jones Room, Nancy Polacek will lead the discussion of the book Gilead by Marilynne Robinson. It is an intimate tale of three generations, from the Civil War to the 20th century, a story about fathers and sons and the spiritual battles that still rage at America's heart. Note: This is the book that was originally scheduled for April.

All women are welcome to become a part of this powerful group of women who share friendship and laughter around books.

If you need more information, contact Mary Jo Blough.

Deacon Retreat – February 29

Please keep the Board of Deacons in your prayers as they gather on Saturday, February 29 for a retreat! The deacons will be spending time in worship, prayer, and thoughtful discussion as to how they can structure themselves to meet the changing needs of our congregation. They'll be sharing more about exciting new initiatives in the coming months!

Thank you for your prayers!

Church Staff Transition

As with all transitions, with Forrest leaving and Therese starting as our new Church Administrator, it will take time to complete training and learning how everything works at PCWS. Please be patient during this transition! Direct any concerns or specific needs to Pastor Erik!

Friends,

My time with PCWS has come to an end, and although my time here was relatively brief, I owe many people a debt of gratitude. In my (just shy of) two years at PCWS, you have given me a great deal of support, opportunity, and comfort. I can only hope that the mark I've left on you is as indelible as the one that you've all left on me. In no other workplace have I developed so many friendships, and it's the brief moments in the office chatting, and learning about the amazing lives you all lead, that I will miss most. You are all a truly wonderful group of people.

My daily goal at PCWS was to pull together the small things – the paperwork, the preparations, the drudgery – in order to prepare a space that the virtues of the members could shine through. It is that tradition which I hope will continue long after me by those who hold a similar position to the one I have here. I know that you will show the same level of magnanimity, patience, and support to the new staff member that you have shown me.

To those of you who wonder how Pastor Erik will get on without me: offer to support him with your talents and skills in order to lighten his workload; love him by sharing your joys, as well as your woes; be patient; and remember that his business may be the leadership of this church, but his labor is in the word and doctrine. While he works to nourish the flock of PCWS, I hope that you'll encourage, sustain, and energize him as well.

To Erik, my comrade and confidant, take time for yourself, ask for help, and remember to set your own tone. Your leadership at PCWS is appreciated, and your impact on this church is without measure. A plant can sometimes appear dead, when it just needs a little water, and a bit of patience.

My thanks goes out to all of you for your kind words in these past few weeks. It was great to connect with so many of you during fellowship in January. I am reminded of a quote by British novelist Amelia Barr, "All changes are more or less tinged with melancholy, for what we are leaving behind is part of ourselves." I leave many parts of myself with you, but take away so many more. Thank you.

ADULT MINISTRIES

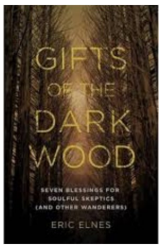
Adult Education: Praying the Examen – February 16 at 11:00 a.m.

The examen is an ancient prayer practice that enables you to find God in your daily life. It is based on a technique that St. Ignatius of Loyola outlined. Pastor Erik will share some of the history of the examen, guide the group in the practice, and provide tools for you to try it at home! There are even smartphone apps! Join Pastor Erik for this first session in a periodic series on spiritual practices.

Weekly Bible Study

You are invited to join Pastor Erik and others from our community for Bible Study each Wednesday from 2-3 p.m. We talk informally about the text for the upcoming Sunday. No preparation is required and the conversation is always interesting. Come whenever you can and know that we'll always have a spot for you! Please see Pastor Erik with any questions.

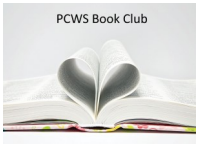
Early-Risers Book Group – Thursdays in Lent



Are you looking for a way to grow in your faith, meet others, and have a moment in the week for reflection? Starting on Thursday, February 27, from 7-8 a.m., we'll be reading and discussing the book Gifts of the Dark Wood: Seven Blessings for Soulful Skeptics (and Other Wanderers) by Eric Elnes.

Eric Elnes demystifies the seven gifts bestowed in the Dark Wood: the gifts of uncertainty, emptiness, being thunderstruck, getting lost, temptation, disappearing, and the gift of misfits. Copies of the book are available from Pastor Erik or in the church office ($15) or you can purchase it on your own. Coffee will be hot and the discussion will be great!

PCWS Book Group
Monday, February 24 – 7:00 p.m.



The group will meet in the Graham Charter Room for discussion of House Broken by Sonja Yoerg (Fiction).

Everyone is welcome to attend for any or all of the discussions. Check the church calendar for future dates and the books chosen for discussion.

For more information, contact Joyce Rodos.

Gathering Around the Table

If you're looking for a great way to meet new people, get connected, and enjoy great fellowship, fun, and food - we invite you to join us as we Gather Around the Table. This is a great place where adult PCWS members and friends, married and single, gather for the opportunity to fellowship and become involved within our church family. Signups are online and individually for each gathering event - participate as often as your calendar allows.

Upcoming gatherings:

Saturday, February 8th, 6:00 p.m. "Tropical Night" at the Banovic's home. Join us for a Winter Escape; wear your tropical attire, Hawaiian shirt, etc.

Saturday, March 14th – Join in for a fun night of games, conversation and appetizers at the home of Lorraine Hoskins. Bring a small appetizer to share. Beer and wine will be available. This "Gathering" is limited to 30, please signup soon so you won't miss out!

Do you have an idea for a way to offer adults a chance to get to know one another better? If you have an idea for hosting a gathering, please contact Theresa Dixon.

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

From the Music Director

PCWS is truly blessed with members who are not only so giving of their time but are incredible musicians lending their gifts in worship. As the Director of Music, I am so grateful. And honestly, so very lucky as many churches of our size, do not have this opportunity with their members.

In reflecting on the music program, the one area of the program that I would like to see grow would be the Chancel Choir. Those that sing with the choir are faithful members and for many, have done so for over 20 years. It is a wonderful group of people to sing, laugh, share, and, of course, worship with, and as much as that is true, to have more members would be so enriching for them as well as you. I have many friends who are choir directors in churches across the country and we are all experiencing the same with our choir programs, the same, strong core of people who have been involved for many years, yearning for more to come be a part of the wonderful program that is the choir.

The following is an excerpt from the Brentwood Benson Blog by Phil Nitz, a Staff Arranger and Worship Leader at Christ Church in Nashville. Phil reflects on the importance of the choir in today's church. After reading, please prayerfully consider coming to either a Thursday evening rehearsal (from 6:30-7:30 p.m. as indicated on the church schedule) or a Sunday morning rehearsal (at 8:30 a.m. on a particular Sunday when the choir is scheduled to sing in church) and seeing what we are all about. I promise, you will not be disappointed!

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE CHOIR IN TODAY'S CHURCH

Among the many reasons the choir is vital to the life of any church, consider these three:

1. The choir is an opportunity for involvement. A church's ministry is only as effective as the people in its congregation who choose to get involved. Small groups, outreach teams, and the arts have provided great opportunities for congregants to sow into the life of their church's ministry, and the choir falls under all three of those categories. I've often heard the choir referred to as "the church within the church." When you join a choir, you're not just singing notes together, you're doing life and ministry together.

2. The choir is an extension of the pulpit. There are so many fantastic songs that have been written for the Church and many that have yet to be written. But not all songs are necessarily suitable for corporate worship. There are songs that teach, encourage, compel, and call to action, and the choir is a marvelous mouthpiece for such things. By presenting these kinds of songs, the choir takes on a pastoral role, and it brings a rich dynamic to the theme or message of that particular service. This is especially effective in services with a missional focus or special services like those during Holy Week or the Christmas season.

3. The choir is a reflection of heaven. The prophet Isaiah gives us a glimpse into God's throne room with angels singing together, "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory" (Isaiah 6:3). John paints a similar picture in the book of Revelation. There is a heavenly choir that sings God's praises for all eternity. When we see our friends and family in the choir loft singing in harmony of voice and spirit, I believe we are momentarily transported (even if only in our minds) to the throne room of heaven. Furthermore, we often see a wide array of ages, ethnicities, and cultural backgrounds on display in the choir. This, too, is a reflection of heaven – God's people, of every age and every race, worshipping together as one body.

See you in the choir! - Stephanie Coates, Music Director

Mission & service

What a week!

PCWS was honored to be the host of Izett Samá Hernández, former pastor of our partner church in Nueva Paz, Cuba, and current pastor of the neighboring Presbyterian church in Los Palos. Visiting the Presbytery of Chicago as a member of the PCUSA Peacemaking Program, Izett was welcomed by PCWS with an open house with PCWS Elders and Deacons on Friday, January 10.

After sharing a beautiful sermon at PCWS Sunday morning, Izett preached an equally thought-provoking sermon at the Jazz Service at Fourth Presbyterian church in Chicago that afternoon.

In addition to spending a lot of time with Pastor Erik throughout the week, Izett was able to meet with staff and friends at Fourth Presbyterian; with the pastors and friends at her partner church in Oak Park; via conference with another partner in Libertyville to plan a pastor's retreat to Cuba later this year; and with representatives of all of the churches within the Presbytery of Chicago with Cuban partners, including Barbara Wilson of Presbytery of Chicago staff.

Her final "official" meeting was with staff at Congressman Dan Lipinski's office who had played a significant role in securing (after many months) Izett's visa for travel to the United States.

Izett has been a great friend to PCWS throughout the 10 years of our partnership and we are so happy to have had the opportunity to return Cuban hospitality by sharing our homes, our churches and our prayers as she lives and shares the story of the church in Cuba throughout the Chicago area.

Greater Chicago Food Depository
Saturday, March 14

We have reserved a slot for a work session at the Greater Food Depository on Saturday morning, March 14, and we hope that you can join in. Carpooling from the church will be available. We will leave around 7:45 a.m. and will be back by noon.

If you are interested in attending, you can either sign up on the Chicago Food Depository website (link for our event), or contact Jan Paddock by email. All attendees must be pre-registered. Also, the minimum age for volunteers is 11.

Please join us for a morning of fun and service!!!

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

Lent Begins This Month on Ash Wednesday – February 26

Plan on joining us for our simple soup supper, Bowl-and-a-Roll on Ash Wednesday, February 26. Ash Wednesday is the start of the 40-day season of preparation for Easter. We will gather in the Jones Room for a simple soup supper at 6:00 p.m. and then move to the Sanctuary for worship starting at 7:00 p.m.

Feel free to come for supper and worship or just join us for worship. If you would like to bring soup, please signup online atwww.presbyws.org/signup.

Please contact Sue Eck for more information.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

As we enter the Lenten season, we will be sharing information about One Great Hour of Sharing. This special offering collected by the denomination for over 70 years helps spread God's love through three Presbyterian Agencies:

- Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA)
- Presbyterian Hunger Program
- Self-Development of People

Each agency works in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. From initial disaster response to ongoing community development, their work fits together to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope.

Look for informative inserts in your Sunday bulletins during Lent. Encourage your children to join a time-honored tradition of filling their "fish banks" which will be distributed at the start of Lent. During Lent, you will find specially-designated envelopes in the pew racks to enclose a check written to PCWS with OGHS on the memo line or give online selecting "One Great Hour of Sharing."

Thank you for your support of the work made possible through the One Great Hour of Sharing offering.

Rev. Dr. Scott Matheney Preaching

Pastor Erik will be out of town on Sunday, March 8, and we will welcome Scott Matheney back to our pulpit. Scott is the Chaplain at Elmhurst College and a good friend of PCWS!

Wear the new PCWS logo in style!

We hope you were able to pick up your PCWS mug on January 19, during fellowship. If you haven't received your mug, they will be available Sunday, February 9, after the congregational meeting.

We're also excited to announce we have our own "store" where you can shop from select apparel items (fleece vest, t-shirt, cap, and more) with our new logo. Visit our online store to see the items available. We were able to extend the window to order until January 31!

For those who order apparel items, the items should arrive at PCWS by approximately February 25. We will let everyone know the orders are in via the Weekly Email and you can pick up your order the following Sunday morning.

In the spring, we'll have more items available! Our hope is that everyone will order at least one item and wear when you're out and about.

If you have ideas for items, please contact Michelle Hennessy, Elder, Welcoming Ministry.

Family Camp 2020

The first weekend of January a group of nearly 40 members of the PCWS community took part in Winter Family Camp at Camp Edwards. It was a wonderful weekend of sharing the traditions of family camp with one another, while welcoming some exciting first-time attendees, including the return of Stacia Hoskins with her twins Rainey and Lawson and Nikki Spangler (Rodos) with 18-month old Henry and her husband Paul!

There was time for informal fellowship and games, puzzles, good snacks, and homemade treats. Saturday afternoon was spent adventuring throughout the camp pursuing a scavenger hunt designed by the Yates family.

On Saturday night the group took a break from games for a time of worship and communion. Pastor Erik shared about the "chalking of the doors" Epiphany tradition and distributed stars for the new year with words to guide us in 2020.

Planning for 2021 is already underway so we can continue to embrace our traditions and invite, in new ways, all of the PCWS family into the true joy and love that is Winter Family Camp.

Souper Bowl of Caring
Sunday, February 2

Super Bowl Sunday will be here in a few days and it is time for the PCWS Youth to start gearing up to participate in what is known as Souper Bowl of Caring. February 2nd will mark the 31st anniversary of Souper Bowl of Caring, a charity tackling hunger issues in communities all across the country.

Our youth will again participate this year. They will collect money after worship in soup pots and bowls. Simply put your donation in the soup pot or bowl of the NFL team you wish to win the Super Bowl. Then on the following Sunday we will reveal which Team raised the most money. Maybe one day soon we will see a pot/bowl for our Bears!

Be ready to vote with your wallet on your favored team!

Carol Stoub Funeral & Reception — February 8

On February 8 at 10:30 a.m. we will gather in sure and certain hope in the resurrection for Carol Stoub's funeral and witness to the resurrection. Carol died on January 17 at the age of 85. We give thanks for a life well-lived!

Carol made most of the plans for her funeral service and all are welcome to attend. Carol requested contributions in her memory be made to PCWS to be used for the improvement of the Labyrinth that was so important to her.
